

Fr. David Hewko – August 20th, 2017 (Mass #2) (Partial)

They're forgetting the biggest warning of Archbp. Lefebvre where he said to his priests, you must warn the faithful. The greatest danger for our faithful and for our priests is to put ourselves under modernist Rome and under these conciliar bishops because they will abuse their authority to crush the faith out of the sheep. The proof is look at all the groups who have made peace and reconciliation and agreements with modernist Rome. Look at 'em all. They have all crumbled to modernism, liberalism, the new Mass and Vatican II.

It's already done in the SSPX. It's finished. They've already been poisoned, it's in the bloodstream.

I repeat this a lot because you need to hear this. I was there in 2012 when that fax came in, in our Syracuse priory, but it [also] went to all the priories in the world, where Bp. Fellay put out mandates: You, the priests, will no longer preach against the agreement with modernist Rome. You will no longer mention the agreement with Rome. And you cannot mention political figures, Catholic politicians who are bad and they need to be rebuked publicly. You're not to mention these things and a whole list of other things.

You talk about declawing the tiger. You talk about making bunny rabbits out of priests. That's exactly what the enemy wants.

They've succeeded within the SSPX by infiltration from the top. And it's happened, right before our eyes.
